

MUNICIPAL AND INDUSTRIAL SERVICES

HIGH HAZARD AND COMPLEX FACILITY EXAMPLES

- Aircraft Manufacturing Plants
- Automotive/Truck/Heavy Equipment Manufacturing Plants
- Beverage Bottling Plants
- Breweries/Canneries
- Chemical Manufacturing Plants
- Dairies
- Fabricating Plants
- Food Processing Plants
- Glass Plants
- Hospitals/Medical Complexes
- Manufacturing Plants
- Meat Packing/Rendering Facilities
- Metal/Plating/Stamping Plants
- Oil & Gas Production Facilities
- Paper/Pulp Plants
- Power Plants
- Restricted, Classified or Closed Access Facilities
- Steel Mills/Foundries
- Tanneries

Typical Cross-Connections Found At High Hazard and Complex Facilities:

- Chemically Treated Boilers
- Treated Water Systems
- Irrigation Systems
- Fire Protection Systems
- Heating/Cooling Systems
- Auxiliary Water Supplies
- Cleaning Operations
- Chemical Mixing Tanks

For more information, call 800.690.6651

SOURCES:

Manual of Cross-Connection Control (9th Edition) 1993, Foundation for Cross-Connection Control and Hydraulic Research, University of Southern California

Backflow Prevention Theory and Practice (2nd Edition), 2004, University of Florida, TREEO Center

Recommended Practice for Backflow Prevention and Cross-Connection Control (3rd Edition), 2004, M-14 Manual, American Water Works Association (AWWA)

